Tax payers are expecting more from local governments than just providing services. Local Governments have an important role to play in Social Responsibility, and many municipalities are making significant advances in this field.

How can local governments better contribute to social responsibility efforts? To find the answer to this question, we need to better understand the government's role in promoting and supporting social responsibilities.

In this webinar we will concentrate on Local Governments Social Responsibility. Some topics that we will cover:

- Governments Social Responsibility - Meeting tax payers expectations
- Sustainability – What does it mean and what are the limits?
- Social Entrepreneurship – a new approach to old problems

Speaker: Professor Stephen C. Betts, Ph.D, William Paterson University
